

Seed Festival

27th April 2013

Panasavalasa

Old Seed festival is an exclusive program of Sanjeevini focused to preserve traditional seed varieties of tribals. It's been organized since 2005. This is the ninth festival being organized on twenty seventh April at Panasavalas in Sovva Panchayat, Dumbriguda mandal, Visakhapatnam. This festival magnetizes the following activity followed by traditional way of celebration with tribal songs and dance. We invite you to render your gracious presence the great success of this event

- ¥ More than thirty villages will participate in this fest.
- ¥ Farmers of these villages exhibit traditional varieties of seeds.
- ¥ The objective is to collect, conserve and store the traditional local varieties of this tribal area which may get lost in this era of modern agriculture.
- ¥ The village exhibiting highest number of varieties will win the prize for the year.

Please contact us for more details